

The diagram shows three vertical rectangular compartments arranged side-by-side. They share a common top structure, which is a white rectangle with a black outline and a small black rectangular port on each of its four vertical sides. Each compartment has its own set of two black rectangular ports on its vertical sides. The first compartment is light blue, the second is light orange, and the third is light green. Each compartment is labeled with its respective name in the center.

Compartment 1

Compartment 2

Compartment 3